You purchased a new pair of shoes. You'll get them eventually. But the wait could be much longer than you expected. It may be 8 weeks, 12 weeks, or 6 months, or even

Years ago, trade was conducted over a small table with a lens. Today, trade is conducted over the Internet. With stockpiles of shoes, you'll have to wait before you can get your shoes. The Internet can be a useful tool, but it's not a silver bullet.

You can use the Internet to search for shoes, compare prices, and find the best deal. But you can't order shoes online. You'll have to wait until the shoes are available.

Of course, you can wait for the shoes to arrive. But you'll have to pay for the shoes. The cost of shipping and handling can be expensive. It can take weeks or months to get your shoes.
